THE "ARABIAN NIGHTS."

A REVIEW OF AN EVENTFUL WEEK IN WALL STREET.

The Late Vanderbilt's vast fortune—The market holds its own—The Great Western King passing away—The boys—"Sensational reports."

NOW YORK, Dec. 15.—The sudden death of Mr. William H. Vanderbilt left the railroad man to take in the whole list of railroads earnings we see but very few roads which show any increase the St. Louis & San Francisco being among the brilliant exceptions. But, on the other hand, there are a number of roads which have suffered a great deal in value, particularly in the iron and steel roads.

The grain markets show another decline of Mr. Vanderbilt's fortune, which was almost entirely neglected. To stock brokers and dock operators, Mr. Vanderbilt and his vast fortune were personal matters. Every one who ever had a few hundred shares of stock took a keen interest in the circumstances of his death and the disposition of his money.

Vanderbilt, or anybody else.

Washington E. Conover, with his brother, is going to continue business with his present staff of clerks and brokers. Morello will probably be compelled to go out of business altogether, the health of his wife being in a very critical condition. He has been given a rest from the calm waters which his daughter and Mr. William Heath have heaped upon him.

The report of Mr. Vanderbilt's death all day long has been bound freight and the telegraph wires have been favorable, so far as the news is concerned, to the New York market. A STARTLING STORY.

OVERTURES BETWEEN GLADSTONE AND THE PARMEILLETTES.

The Turn a Little Thin at the Heel and Toe—The Teapet Tempted Liability to Start Again—The Sultan Society Circles in Cork suddenly shocked.

London, Dec. 15.—The Sunday Observers, which is a Liberal newspaper and usually well informed, has published a startling yarn telling of overtures made by Mr. Gladstone to the Parmeillettes.

The story is plausibly written but there is nothing in it to sustain it. The author says that Gladstone, now 80, is the chief of a Liberal party which would incline him to support the Iron Duke.

The author says that Gladstone's purpose is to bring about a reconciliation between the rich and the poor, the disposition of the poor to judge the rich, and the disposition of the rich to judge the poor.

The story is that Gladstone would be inclined to support the Iron Duke if he could be induced to give up his seat in the House of Commons.

MEXICAN MUDDLES.

The Fatal Firing—Trial by Court Martial and Probable Death.

MONTEREY, Neuvo Leon, Dec. 15.—Bustos, the young city in greatest danger, recovering from the recent attack by rebels, received light. Some surprise was felt because the Federal troops did not return the fire of Sepulveda's forces last Thursday, but it is now known that Gen. Reyes commanded them not to do so for further trials were expected.

Gen. Sepulveda's forces were held in check by the Mexican army, but the rebels were beaten.

MR. NATHAN SUIT, a good citizen of Sardinia, aged seventy-three, was buried at Shannon cemetery on Wednesday 10th instant. He was much esteemed by the community in which he lived.

SEATS for Murdoch's reading's to-morrow night are going off rapidly and the indications point to one of the largest audiences that has ever attended an entertainment at the opera house. If you want a good location secure your seats to-day.

A PROTRACTED meeting is in progress in the Baptist Church at Mayfield. Rev. Mr. Cox, of Georgetown, Ky., is doing the preaching. Several addition are reported. The visiting minister is an attractive speaker. He talks with a directness and incisiveness that at once shows him to have a very alert mind. He makes the parties particularly entertaining.

Accidental Shooting.

Lydia Strander, colored, a resident of the classic region of Snag Alley accidentally shot herself about 12 o'clock last night. She was in the act of withdrawing the pistol from the bosom of her dress, when it was discharged, the ball striking in the pit of the stomach ranging downward. The wound is painful but not considered serious.

Still They Go.

About one hundred and fifty reserved seats are now taken for Jas. E. Murdoch's reading's to-morrow night. This shows our citizens will patronize a first-class entertainment when one offers. Seats can be had at Harry Taylor's, and you had better secure one early. Mr. Murdoch and his daughter will arrive on the train this evening.

Mr. R. C. Kink sold recently his fine premium saddle gelding, Ned, to J. C. Grove, Esq., of Dover. Mr. Grove is to be congratulated as the possessor of so fine a piece of horse-flesh. Ned carried off the blue ribbon in every ring he was shown in last fall, notably in one ring of twenty-one entries, and among them the animal that had carried off the blue ribbon at the St. Louis Fair.

Change of Time.

The Kentucky Central managers have ordered a change in the time-card of passenger train No. 51. On and after tomorrow (Wednesday) this train will arrive here at 10:45 a. m., and leave at 12:45 p. m. The above is standard time. By the city time it will arrive at 11:10 a. m., and leave at 1:10 p. m. This change in the time will enable passengers by the afternoon train to reach Cincinnati in time for all points North, East, South and West. Our readers will do well to notice the change.

Handsome Gift.

Mr. John I. Matthews, of this city, was the recipient, last Saturday, of one of the handsomest gold coronets ever seen in this city. It is a gift, and was presented to Mr. Matthews by Mr. A. Liberati, the celebrated cornet player of New York. The instrument was made at Elkhart, Ind., and is handsomely finished with the rim of the mouth piece set in diamonds. In the bell of the cornet is a beautiful wreath of flowers, with settings also of diamonds. The beauty of the instrument is enhanced by forty of these stone set rings altogether. It was while Mr. Liberati was filling an engagement at Lexington last fall that Mr. Matthews met him. The acquaintance that followed this meeting has resulted in Mr. Liberati presenting this handsome gift.

Mr. Matthews will play this cornet for the first time in public at Murdoch's reading at the opera house tomorrow (Wednesday) night.

Never Too Late to Mend.

When the system is so badly run down that it is like an old boot which has been half-soled and heel'd several times and mental shabbiness goes hand-in-hand with physical debility—then it might seem too late to try recuperation. Not so! Not as long as you can get a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters at the druggist's for just one dollar.

Cure for Piles.

The ladies of the M. E. Church, South, of Washington, will give a concert on the night of Tuesday, December 29th, for the benefit of the church. They will be assisted by the best musical talent of this city and county. The object of the entertainment is a worthy one, and nothing will be left undone to make it one of the most enjoyable events of the holidays.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of fullness, pain, and sometimes a slight swelling of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or rectal organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulence, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, is often present. There is a constant desire to move the bowels, and the stools are thin, watery, and frequently bleed. These piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanck's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the rectal mucous membrane, and causes a decided and intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address Dr. Bosanck's Medicine Co., Pigeon, O. Sold by Geo. E. Wood.

RIVER NEWS.

River rising here.

River eight feet at Pittsburg and another rise is expected from Sunday's rains.

The total shipments of coal from Pittsburg last week amounted to 2,223,000 bushels.

Heavy rains fell along the Kanawha Sunday and a big rise is looked for from that stream.

Considerable ice was passing this point this morning. It did not interfere much with navigation.

AT WORK ONCE MORE.

THE CAPITOL MACHINERY STARTS UP WITH SLOW MOTION.

The Presidential Succession Bill Laid Aside for the Day—Changes in Committee—Many Matters of Minor Importance—Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In the senate Mr. Platt, of Connecticut, presented a joint resolution of the legislature of that state, urging the passage by Congress of a similar measure. Mr. Platt said the people of his state felt much interest in the matter and that the governor had requested him to bring the matter to the attention of the senate. Mr. Hoar intimated that the state of Connecticut was responsible for the failure in the house of the senatorial bill during last session. He said a distinguished representative of that state, having been chairman of the conference committee, failed to report it, so late in the session, that the report was not acted upon.

Mr. Platt did not agree with the views of the senator from Massachusetts. Mr. Hoar recited from memory the provisions of the presidential succession (substantially the same bill which passed the senate last year), and gave notice that he would again call it up for consideration.

Mr. Allison, by Mr. Edmunds, moved that the bill should lay over for a day in order that Mr. Edmunds might have an opportunity to attach to it an amendment regulating the count of the presidential electors.

On motion of Mr. Allison, the membership of the committee on appropriations was increased to ten, and the chair appointed Mr. Logan as an additional member.

Mr. Bowes at his own request was relieved of the chairmanship of the committee on military affairs, and Mr. Logan was appointed to that position.

Mr. Garrison gave notice that at the first opportunity he would introduce a bill providing for the admission of Southern Dakotas as a state of the union.

Mr. Manderson was at his own request relieved from service on the committee on military affairs.

Mr. T. C. H. Foote, president pro tempore, was at his own request relieved from service on the committee on privileges and elections and the committee on the library.

Mr. Sewall was by the chair appointed also to the committees on library, and as member of the committee on privileges and elections.

Mr. Hoar from the committee on judiciary reported favorably the bill fixing the salary of U. S. Supreme Judges at $5,000. This was passed on the calendar.

In executive business the nominations received were appropriately referred. The doors were then reopened and after the transaction of some unimportant business the senate at 2:35 p. m. adjourned.

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The president sent to the Senate several hundred nominations.

The following list of postmasters comprises the only new appointments:

John A. Carr, Thomaston, Maine; John A. Avery, Marion, W. Va.; Charles W. Nichols, New York; J. John G. Randall, Doylesburg, Pa.; George S. Schell, Norristown, Pa.; M. S. Bonner, Pottstown, Pa.; John Hairland, Monroeville, Pa.; James H. Covington, E. Liverpool, Ohio; Frank L. Parker, W. Va.; Daniel J. Sherman, Ashtabula, Ohio; Thomas Hubbard, Beldontontain, O.; Rungold, W. M., Milley, Lima, O.; R. Gordon, St. Mary's, O.; James W. Talbot, Middlebury, Vt.; John F. Tracy, W. Haven, Conn.; Erastus R. McKinney, Laconia, N. H.; Erastus W. Wiggin, Leipsic, Ind.; Joseph Hart, Quarch, Ill.; A. J. West, Alton, Ill.; John Smith, Bedford, Ia.; R. C. Hatch, Barboursville, W. Va.; Clarence Snyder, Racine, Wis.; R. S. Jones, Elkhart, Mich.; Angelo E. Tozer, Louis, Mich.; Charles R. Van Slyck, St. Helena, Cal.

Bad for Polygamy.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The supreme court of the United States has decided the case of Angus M. Cannon vs. The United States, for writ in error from the supreme court of Utah, involving an important point under the Edmunds' anti-Polygamy act. The complainant was charged with unlawful cohabitation was convicted in the lower court, fined $100, and sentenced to six months in prison, which verdict was confirmed by the higher court of appeals, and now by the supreme court of the United States. The supreme court also confirmed the rulings of the lower court, that cohabitation with women as wives, or the claim of married relatives with more than one wife was a violation of the law.

General Tombs Dying.

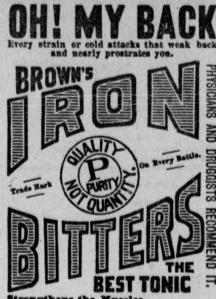

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Gen. Tombs remains critically ill. He is scarcely able to swallow his accustomed milk punch. He is scarcely able to get out of bed as a baby, and is extremely weak. His physician furnishes the following: "I have just left the bedside of Gen. Tombs. His temperature is normal, his pulse 107, and his heart is very weak. He is prostrate, and unable to raise his head without assistance. He swallows with great difficulty. In the past four-eight hours he has failed very rapidly, and it is my opinion that the end will soon come."

Mosse.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Mr. Morrison, of Illinois, from the committee on rules, submitted the report of that committee on the proposed revision of the rules, heretofore published. Laid over. Mr. Randall will introduce a bill to amend the rules. An effort was made to have a bill introduced by the members of the minority, and now by the supreme court of the United States, to provide for debate, and in order to avoid a controversy Mr. Hatch, of Missouri, at 12:30 moved that the house adjourn, which motion was carried.

Shoe Cutters Strike.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.—The shoe strike is now over, and all have returned to work. It is understood that Jackson, manager of shoe manufacturers, has been expelled from the Knights of Labor, is pronounced by that body a malcontent. The members claim that their order can not be expelled without trial, which they have not had. The strike, which are putting on all cutters who apply for work, Krippendorff has secured seven or eight, and Hocer is reported to have a full force.
